

TERMS OF REFERENCE FOR CILS ADVISORY COMMITTEE

Approved June 16, 2011

CILS MISSION:

CILS provides print disabled post-secondary students with equitable access to educational resources by either borrowing or creating alternate format learning materials.

Advisory Committee Purpose:

Advise CILS management regarding student needs, give feedback on CILS products and services, share information about needs, trends, opportunities, and technology

Provide a forum for collaboration, support, and sharing of information that will foster best practices.

Membership:

Members represent post-secondary students, educational institutions, and affiliated partners

Current members:

- Ministry of Advanced Education, Student Aid BC – funding body
- Access & Diversity, UBC
- Assistive Technology BC (ATBC)
- BCcampus
- Canadian National Institute for the Blind (CNIB)
- Disability Services Articulation Committee
- Industry Training Authority
- Learning Disabilities Association
- National Educational Association of Disabled Students (NEADS)
- Post-Secondary Communication Access Services (PCAS)
- Provincial Resource Centre for the Visually Impaired (PRCVI)
- Vancouver Community College (VCC) – Program for Visually Impaired