

Getting Started at Langara Library

1. Obtain your Langara ID card at IMS (5309). This will be your Library card.
2. Find books, articles, media, online resources, and service information on the library website.
3. Contact the subject librarian for your department, who will be happy to introduce you to library services.

Getting Materials From Other Libraries

We can obtain library materials not available at Langara for you through our Interlibrary Loan service. Place a request at the Reference Desk or online.

For Faculty

Contact Your Subject Librarian

Your department's subject librarian is your "gateway" to the library. They provide subject-specific help with library research, instruction, assignments, collection development, policies, and other library-related issues. Find your subject librarian on our website.

Library Instruction

We offer face-to-face classes, and two online tutorials, which teach basic library skills through to advanced research skills for specific disciplines and assignments. We can also create research guides for your assignments.

Online Reading Lists

We can help you create links to full text articles and books for supplemental course readings.

Keeping Current

Contact your subject librarian to find out how to set up automated, online Journal or topic alerts.

Courseware and Copyright

Library staff and resources help meet both your online and print course readings needs and requirements.

Course Reserves

To place materials such as books, articles, and videos on short-term loan for your courses contact Circulation at 5528/5462.

DVD and Equipment Booking

Prebook Langara DVDs and videos or titles from other post-secondary institutions. We recommend booking as far in advance as possible to ensure that the title is available. For information or bookings email media@langara.bc.ca.

Equipment can be booked at IMS (5309).
